

C. T. 29—St. Philip's Church, Charleston, S. C.

"America's Most Historic City"

ST. PHILIP'S CHURCH
CHARLESTON, S. C.

"America's Most Historic City"

St. Philip's is known as the "Westminster of the South" because so many distinguished men of Colonial and Revolutionary days are buried in its graveyard. First building erected in 1681-2; second building in 1723 but this was destroyed in the great fire of 1835. Present building completed in 1838.
